NEED HOUSE NUMBERS

Over Half the Residences, Stores, Apartment Buildings and Other Structures in Chicago Are Without Them.

The casual observer cannot fail to notice that one of the crying needs of Chicago is street numbers on the buildings.

Since the passage of the new street car ordinance, which provides for the stopping of the cars at even numbered corners only, the absence of the numbers is painfully noticeable, and much annoyance is felt in consequence.

Letter carriers and others who have long suffered from this flagrant disregard of the law requiring numbers on every house, have grown tired of uttering complaints. No attention was paid to them.

Whole blocks all over Chicago are without numbers, and no one in authority appears to care about the fact.

EAGLE'S.

Edward A. Cudahy stands foremost among the men who have helped make Chicago the great city she is today.

Francis J. Dewes, the well known brewer, was the man who presented the magnificent statue of Alexander Von Humboldt to Humboldt Park, which was named for him. This statue is one of the finest in the whole West Park system. Mr. Dewes, who gave it to the public, has been a resident of Chicago since 1888. He has always been noted for his artistic tastes and his beautiful residence on Wrightwood avenue bears evidence of it. The stone figures on its front which attract the attention of passers-by were the work of noted sculptors who carved them in their present position from great blocks of stone built into the house when it was erected.

James Agar of the well known John Agar Packing Company would make a splendid state treasurer of Illinois. He is a business man of high character and a political leader of force and ability.

Judge Frank Johnston Jr. is making a good record on the Circuit bench.

F. H. Seubold, D. C., one of the most prominent chiropractors in Chicago, offers to treat all soldiers and sailors suffering from sciatica, rheumatism, or kindred ailments free of charge. His office is in the Stevens building, 17 North State street.

Joseph F. Haas has always made a good public record. He is a man of the people.

Chief Mooney of the city detective bureau, is one of the ablest police officials in the United States.

Otto Rueter, the head of the big real estate firm which bears his name, is one of the upbuilders of Chicago. The office of his company on the ground floor of 32 North Dearborn street is one of the finest in the city.

Colonel August W. Miller, popular clerk of the Circuit Court is making a splendid public record.

Clayton F. Smith is a popular Democratic leader, whose friends predict future honors for him.

District Attorney Clyne is making a good record.

Dixon C. Williams, the well known manufacturer, deserves well at the hands of the Democratic party. He is a born leader.

William H. Wesbey, the city collector, is one of the most popular of Mayor Thompson's cabinet. He gives satisfaction to the public and is the right man in the right place.

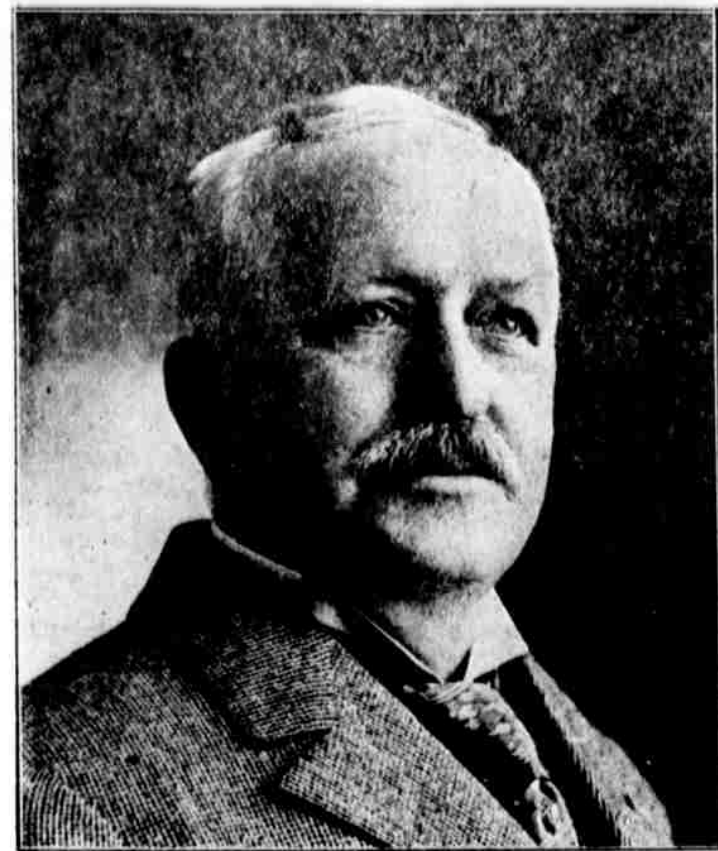

H. H. Merrick is one of the leaders in the civic life of Chicago. As president of the Association of Commerce he has done great work for the city, its present and future. Mr. Merrick is president of the Great Lakes Trust Company, Chicago's new big bank, which started in with a capital of $3,000,000, and a surplus of $600,000. All of the stock was oversubscribed for.

Violinists all praise the work of George A. Osterberg of 59 East Van Buren street. He is one of the best known violin manufacturers in the country.

C. E. Karstrom, the well known manager of sales for the Big Creek Colliery Co., is one of the most popular men in Chicago connected with the coal trade.

Robert E. Cantwell, who is one of the ablest and most popular of Chicago lawyers, would make a great judge.

Ivan D. Koukoff, the well known money broker and steamship agent, is a leader on the West Side. He would make a good county commissioner.

JOSEPH F. HAAS,
Popular Recorder of Deeds.

The county clerk's office under Robert M. Sweitzer has never known a scandal. It is clean, efficient and ably managed.

Emmett Wheelan is making a splendid record as a member of the County Board of Commissioners. He is a veteran Chicago printer who stands high with everybody in the trade and as a public official is winning friends everywhere.

C. B. Hedstrom, the popular proprietor of Lake View's foremost shoe store at 3264 North Clark street, has hosts of friends among the leading men of Chicago—a fact that is testified to by the popularity of his place of business.

Fletcher Dobyns, the popular master in chancery, is at the forefront in every movement for the betterment of Chicago.
